

Flower Arranging Demonstrations in The Marquee Theatre
Tuesday 22 June and Thursday 24 June 2010

A Celebration of the Rose Week, The Savill Garden, Windsor Great Park

Join NAFAS National Demonstrators Derek Armstrong on June 22, and David Ryland on June 24, for a session of superb floral artistry.

Derek will be demonstrating his stylish designs on Tuesday 22 June and is a past Chairman of the National Demonstrators Committee of NAFAS. He has been selected on numerous occasions to give demonstrations to the National Competitive Show and National Assemblies, in addition to his involvement in helping to create a design at the recent Westminster Abbey Flower Festival and designs for the NAFAS Gala Dinner in the Ricoh Centre, Coventry, to celebrate 50 years of NAFAS.

David's demonstration on Thursday 24 June will be focusing on garden plant material both within classic and contemporary design. His demonstration at last year's NAFAS National Show received a standing ovation and he has designed many spectacular Flower Festivals. He is presently the Area Chairman of the North West Area. David has a love and deep knowledge of flowers and horticulture and has written many articles and his garden has been featured in many floral and horticultural magazines and on television.

The Savill Garden will be celebrating the opening of its magnificent new Rose Garden throughout the week, and visitors will also be able to enjoy a trail of Land Art, produced by NAFAS members, linking the award winning Savill Building with the new Rose Garden.

There are demonstrations daily at 11.00am and 2.00pm. Cost per ticket, which also includes admission to The Savill Garden, is £20.00.
